

NEW CASE REPORT

Name of Case (full name):	State of California, ex rel Fowler, et al., v. Caremark RX, Inc., et al.
Date Received By Legal Office:	09/17/2009
Attorney Contact(s):	Howard Schwartz
Program Contact:	HBB
Plaintiff(s):	State of California
Defendant(s):	Caremark RX
Other Parties:	None
Issues/Status:	This case involves false pharmacy claims and has been referred to outside counsel (Steptoe & Johnson).
Potential Monetary Impact:	Unknown at this time.

Name of Case (full name):	Southern Humboldt Community Healthcare District
Date Received By Legal Office:	09/21/2009
Attorney Contact(s):	Henry Crowle
Program Contact:	HBB
Plaintiff(s):	CalPERS
Defendant(s):	Southern Humboldt Community Healthcare District
Other Parties:	None
Issues/Status:	This is an action to collect delinquent health care premiums. A settlement agreement is being negotiated between the parties, and its terms have been agreed upon in principal. Southern Humboldt recently made a significant payment and their account should be current if they continue with the payment schedule.
Potential Monetary Impact:	Unknown at this time.

Name of Case (full name):	Riverside Sheriffs' Assn., a representative of Riverside County Correctional Counselors (Erbe, Jones, Moss) v. Board of Administration (CalPERS)
----------------------------------	---

Date Received By Legal Office:	9/23/2009
-----------------------------------	-----------

Attorney Contact(s):	Carol McConnell
----------------------	-----------------

Program Contact:	BNSD
------------------	------

Plaintiff(s):	Riverside Sheriffs' Assn., a representative of Riverside County Correctional Counselors (Erbe, Jones, Moss)
---------------	---

Defendant(s):	CalPERS
---------------	---------

Other Parties:	Real Party in Interest: County of Riverside
----------------	---

Issues/Status:	Riverside County Correctional Counselors are seeking safety classification. The Attorney General's Office is representing CalPERS. CalPERS' Answer is due on November 20, 2009.
----------------	---

Potential Monetary Impact:	Unknown at this time.
----------------------------	-----------------------

Name of Case (full name):	In re Marriage of Steed
Date Received By Legal Office:	10/21/2009
Attorney Contact(s):	Laurie Eavenson
Program Contact:	Community Property
Plaintiff(s):	Sharron Steed
Defendant(s):	James Steed
Other Parties:	None
Issues/Status:	Mr. Steed is requesting that the payments required by the qualified domestic relations order (QDRO) be redeposited to his retirement account, instead of to Ms. Steed's beneficiaries, because she died prior to CalPERS approving the QDRO. CalPERS filed a request for a stay of the QDRO's enforcement until November 30, 2009, by which time a motion will be filed in Superior Court to address the issues raised by Mr. Steed.
Potential Monetary Impact:	Unknown at this time.